

Grant Victor's Tim and Burt Matthews Named Ernst & Young 2010 Entrepreneur Of The Year

SALT LAKE CITY, June 8, 2010—Grant Victor business partners and brothers, Tim Matthews, CEO and Burt Matthews, president, (www.grantvictor.com) received the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2010 Award in the Business Services category of the Utah Region on June 2. Grant Victor, a Family of Companies, is one of North America's leading providers of ATM services.

"It is a great honor for us to receive this award," said Tim Matthews. "We pride ourselves in providing world-class service. We attribute our success to the entrepreneurial spirit taught to us by our parents, the sacrifice and support of our families, and our dedicated employees."

The Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards honor entrepreneurs who have demonstrated excellence in such areas as innovation, financial performance and personal commitment to their businesses and communities.

"Our business grew from humble beginnings—we have learned from our successes and setbacks," said Burt Matthews. "Moving forward, we are poised to actively develop new technologies that will advance financial transactions in the consumer marketplace."

Grant Victor is the parent company of three subsidiary companies serving all aspects of the ATM industry in North America. eGlobal is one of the largest ATM operators providing ATMs and bill payment solutions to retail, convenience, hospitality, entertainment and amusement industries. ATMequipment.com is a leading wholesale supplier of retail ATM machines, parts and supplies, and has an extensive repair service center. OptConnect provides fast and secure ATM connectivity with greater cost savings and greater reliability and mobility.

In 2009, Grant Victor experienced an 87.5 percent growth increase over 2008 revenues. In 2009, Grant Victor was ranked No. 70 of the Top 100 Inc. 500 Companies by Industry—Financial Services.

As a Utah Region award winner, both Matthews are eligible for consideration for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year 2010 national program. National winners will be announced at the annual awards gala in Palm Springs, Calif. Nov. 13.
